IN A SERIOUS CONDITION.

A Case of Terrible Kidney Trouble.

Henry Palmer, Cole and Walnut Sts. Barnesville, O., says: "My kidney trouble was caused by hardships and exposure in the army. The awful pains across my back gradually became more severe until I was in constant misery. My feet and hands were swollen to twice their natural size. The kidney secretions were in a terrible condition-for months I voided what seemed to be clear blood. I became so dizzy everything seemed to whirl. My condition was alarming when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Before long I improved and was soon strong and

Two Scotch fishermen, James and Bandy, belated and befogged on a rough water, were in some trepidation lest they should never get ashore again. At last Jamie said:

"Sandy, I'm steering, and I think you'd better put up a bit of prayer." "I don't know how," said Sandy.

"If ye don't I'll chuck ye overboard," said Jamie.

Sandy began: "Oh, Lord, I never asked anything of ye for fifteen years, and if ye'll only get us safe back, I'll never trouble ye again, and-"

GREAT DEMAND FOR LABOR

NO EXCUSE FOR WORKERS BE ING IDLE.

All Classes More Generally Employed Than Since the Depression Two Years Ago.

Chicago, Illinois.-Demand for nearly all classes of labor is more general now than at any time since prior to the big industrial depression through which the country passed more than but his motion was voted down. two years ago. In fact, there is no possible excuse for even "father" to remain idle. The whole nation is a great beehive of industrial activity.

Inquiries made show that not only is there a big demand for unskilled labor, such as harvest hands, railroad and construction gang workers and street laborers, but the skilled trades of the country, especially in th build ing trades, are busily engaged in pro ductive industry.

Standing orders for men to do rall road construction work in all parts o. the country are on hand in the free employment offices and Director Charles Harris of the Kansas free employment office announces that at least 40,000 men will be needed soon to harvest the wheat crop in the Kansas wheat belt.

In the steel industry, which is regarded as a national industrial barometer, there is plenty of work for all. Railroad officials, feeling assured that the interstate commission will allow a raise in freight rates, have started to carry out a policy of general construction and improvement of rails, roadbed equipments in all parts of the country including the building of many new lines of road.

COTTON MEN INDICTED

READY FOR LORIMER PROBE

The Senate Took Last Preliminary Steps Looking to Inquiry Into Bribery Charge.

Washington, D. C .- The last preiminary step looking to an investigation of the charges against Senator Lorimer of Illinois has been taken by the senate. The senate adopted a resolution providing for an inquiry. Senator Borah sought to have the resolution so amended as to direct that the inquiry proceed immediately,

In presenting the amendment Mr. Borah urged that expendition was necessary both in the interest of Senator Lorimer and the public, and he stated that he believed such instruction necessary because of past delays in such cases. He said, however, that he intended no reflection on the committee on privileges and elections, which will have the investigation in hand.

Senator Burrows, who is chairman of the committee, however, interpreted the amendment as a reflection and promised there would be no occasion for such direction as the amendment implied.

The amendment was voted down without division, and the resolution agreed to by the same process.

CRIME AND POVERTY SCARCE

Kansas Is Land of Empty Jails and Tenantiess Poor Farms-Only 512 Paupers.

Topeka, Kansas.-Kansas has only 512 paupers within its confines, according to a report filed by the state board of control. Twenty-eight county poor farms have no inmates at all. There are 53 counties of the state having no. prisoners under sentence, and 34 with no prisoners of any kind in their jails. These statistics show a remarkable absence of crime and poverty in a state of more than 1,500, 000 people.
